Public Comments / Announcements / Communications

1. None

Consent Agenda

Trustee Eckart pointed out the June Payment Listing had a $0.90 error in the handwritten portion. Eckart asked about the cash balance? Fiscal Officer Williams replied that the second half 2020 real property settlement will occur in early August, and the combination of that and continued strong PLF receipts will put the Library in a good cash position. Eckart also asked what the "Memo Expense" included? Williams replied in June it included the credit card processing fees.

Trustee Avsec asked about the landscaping expense in June? Williams and Director Neubauer replied it was for bed cleanup and mulch at both buildings plus two (2) trees at Ashtabula.

Westlake moved and Eckart seconded motion to approve the Consent Agenda, all Ayes. 2021-31.

Geneva/SRC/Outreach Update

- Whelpley talked about the need for study room space at the Geneva Library, and the Geneva team survived the early-summer employee turnover.
- Whelpley expressed a great deal of satisfaction about the participation to date for the Summer Reading Club, noting that there are participants from nearly every school in the County.
- Trustee Butler commented that the SRC team "rocked it".
- Trustee Westlake asked about the number of middle school students attending the Library after school? Whelpley replied the daily average was approximately 18 in May 2021. Whelpley also commented that attendance for the year end scavenger hunt & mystery theatre was approximately 35.
- Westlake asked what the plan was for the coming school year, as well as for the time when COVID-19 vaccines are approved for children less than age 12? Whelpley replied the planning was underway for the next school year, and that the number of students will need to be moderated.

- Westlake stated he had a recent conversation with Marianne Sezon, and that Ms. Sezon was very impressed with how ACDL has greatly expanded programming and services.
- Avsec asked if we were going to hire someone? Neubauer replied ACDL will contract with an individual instead of hiring.

Items Too Late for Agenda

- 1. Neubauer informed the Board that a leak developed at Geneva, and that the roof top AC unit above the Children's area is the suspected source of the leak. Westlake commented the leak may be caused by a malfunctioning condensate drain.
- 2. Neubauer informed the Board that Helena Richardson is resigning effective September 1, 2021 to pursue her passion for weaving.
- 3. Westlake commented that he has long championed digitization, and he would like to see a county-wide cooperative effort to digitize. Neubauer replied she has spoken with a Librarian experienced in digitization that may be interested on working for ACDL on a contract (not employment) basis. Neubauer also stated that she has recently spoken with the Director of the KSU-Ashtabula Library, and that the KSU-Ashtabula Library currently has a staff of one (the Director). Lauren Webster suggested an intern from the KSU MLIS master's program,

Hearing no further business, Butler adjourned the meeting at 8:07 PM.
